

Spokesperson's profile: Mr Jitendra Srivastava, CEO of Triton Logistics & Maritime

A strategist, disruptor, and industry visionary, Jitendra Srivastava is leading the charge in transforming global logistics with cutting-edge technology, digital innovation, and customer-centric solutions. As CEO of Triton Logistics & Maritime, he has built a company known for its agility, efficiency, and sustainability, redefining the way global supply chains operate.

With over 25 years of expertise in International Freight Forwarding, Global Sales, and Supply Chain Management, Mr. Srivastava has positioned Triton as a benchmark for operational excellence, data-driven decision-making, and seamless global trade solutions. His strategic foresight has helped businesses navigate disruptions, optimize logistics, and drive revenue growth.

A sought-after speaker, strategist, and mentor, Mr. Srivastava actively shapes industry dialogues by contributing to global trade forums, logistics summits, and policy discussions. His insights on supply chain resilience, digital transformation, and sustainability have influenced business leaders, policymakers, and logistics professionals worldwide.

As the driving force behind TriNext and TriCademy, he is building a community of logistics innovators, thought leaders, and future professionals who will shape the next era of freight and supply chain management.

Under his leadership, Triton has embraced AI-driven logistics, predictive analytics, and sustainable freight solutions, creating a future-ready logistics ecosystem. His vision for a digital-first, efficiency-driven logistics industry is setting new benchmarks for the global supply chain landscape.

For Jitendra Srivastava, logistics is not just about moving goods—it's about creating smarter, faster, and more sustainable trade networks that power global economies. He isn't just leading a company; he is shaping the future of logistics.